

featured in
FRESNO State MAGAZINE ~ Spring 2007
fresnostatenews.com

I am fresno state! r u?

The newly launched Web site, iamfresnostate.com, serves as an online portal to connect and Interconnect Fresno State students, faculty and staff, as well as future students, alumni and friends.

By utilizing MySpace, members of the Fresno State extended family are connecting with each other throughout the nation and the world.

A recent sampling of iamfresnostate MySpace comments include:

• "DR. CARRIE" – 47, female, alumna; San Diego: "Hello Fresno State - my Alma Mater. I was Homecoming Queen at Fresno State in 1980, a Kappa Alpha Theta member, and graduated with a B.S. in Child Development/Pre-Med and minor in Chemistry. Now I'm a pediatrician and the author of three books. Go Bulldogs!"

- "JASON" – 23, male, alumnus; La Palma: "Business Admin-Info Systems. Class of 2006. I am now a part of the Walt Disney Company, but I am and will always be Fresno State! Go Dogs!"
- "JOSEPH 'TAZ' SALAZAR" – 19, male, future student; Los Angeles: "I'm going to be a Fresno State Bulldog next fall!"

Additionally, the free, online video sharing platform, YouTube, offers several Fresno State Informative videos, plus student produced videos of a professional quality. A recent campus video competition with the theme "I am Fresno State!" was held and the winners' videos may be viewed on the Web site.

Are you Fresno State? If so, log on to iamfresnostate.com and let us know!